Hello Russ,

I will send an invite to you via Outlook Calendar for a call on February 2, 2018, 9:30 to 11 am. This call will be to resurrect the project, summarize current status, identify next steps, and propose a preliminary schedule for next steps.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Best,
Carmen

Feb 2 works for me. I would suggest anytime between 9 and 1 west coast time. Let me know if that works. I am generally in the office so give me a call prior to that time. You can usually reach me in the office between 1 and 2 pacific time.

Hello Russ,

I was out of the office on vacation until the second week in January. Since then I have been trying to write to you without success.

In reply to your earlier email, I also would like us to have a call to reengage on the Westinghouse Rancho Dominguez project. Friday February 2, 2018 would work for me (tentatively 8 am California time). Perhaps we can talk sometime before that date to quickly touch base.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Best,
Carmen
